Roseanne Sweeny, owner of Possibili-Teas, and her team have completed preparations for the housewarming of the company's first store in the Kamm's Corners area of Cleveland on Friday, January 17, 2020.

CLEVELAND (January 18, 2020) – Possibili-Teas opened its doors to the public for the first time Friday, January 17.

Possibili-Teas is a small business that sells locally grown teas, including both classic favorites and specialty blends. Roseanne Sweeny, 37, a West Park native, started the business from her backyard garden, then expanded it into a greenhouse on Grayton Road. From there, Sweeny sold her teas at Kamm's Corners and at nearby businesses, including Savor the Moment on Puritas and Common Grounds on Lorain.

"I knew I wanted to keep Possibil-Teas a local business, so I jumped at the chance to open a store at Kamm's Corners," Sweeny said.

After nearly a year of renovations, Possibi-Teas was ready to open its doors to the public and held a Housewarming Party on January 17 to celebrate.

Sweeny estimates that about 100 people showed up to check out the store, sample teas, buy from local artists and enjoy catering from Gene's Place restaurant.

"It was a wonderful turn out," Sweeny said.

Regular business hours started Saturday, January 18. The store will be open 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Mondays-Fridays and 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays.

About Possibili-Teas

Possibili-Teas is a local loose-leaf tea grower. It was founded in the West Park area of Cleveland, Ohio, in 2014. Possibili-Teas began as Roseanne Sweeny's personal tea garden, which had grown large enough that she was able to start selling at local farmers' markets. By 2017, it had grown into a greenhouse, allowing Possibili-Teas to start partnering with local cafes and coffee shops to sell its teas. Possibili-Teas aims to use the simple comfort of a warm cup of tea to bring people together.
